

"A Sheep and A Dog"

Psalm 130

CRYING OUT TO THE LORD

Two times in verses 1-2, we see the word cry.

We also have moments where we recognize that we need the Lord in a fresh way.

Maybe you have blown it recently...

Remember three things...

A business owner...

NO RECORD IS KEPT

Some of the best news you will ever read is in verse 3...

What can we learn about forgiving others?

Sharing someone's anger and bitterness...

WAITING FOR THE LORD

Verses 5-6...

In the Bible forgiveness often came with new hope and new possibilities...

Waiting on the Lord...

REDEEM

Redeem in the Bible means to purchase back something that has been lost.

Some people think that once we have been saved and forgiven we can just live as we please.

THE CALL TO WORSHIP Psalm 130:1-8 Eddie Haigler

One: Out of the depths I cry to you Lord; Lord, hear my voice.

All: Let your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.

One: If you, Lord, kept a record of sins, Lord, who could stand?

All: But with you there is forgiveness, so that we can, with reverence, serve you.

One: I wait for the Lord, my whole being waits, and in his word I put my hope.

All: I wait for the Lord more than watchmen wait for morning, more than watchman wait for morning.

One: Israel, put your hope in the Lord, for with the Lord is unfailing love and with him is full redemption.

All: The Lord himself will redeem Israel from all their sins.

For August:

Fruit Juices

From the moment I began my internship on May 21st of this year, I knew it was going to be difficult for me to say goodbye when my time at FBCK would end. Throughout my summer here, God taught me about the nuances of church ministry and He strengthened me in ways unexpected. I grew in my love for teaching as a Sunday School teacher and I learned more than I could have asked for as a student intern. Despite appearances, the journey was not effortless or smooth, but God presented me with many trials and tasks. And I am grateful, "for the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few" (Matthew 7:14). Thank you for helping me feel welcome. Thank you for being people whom I have come to know and love. Thank you for sharing in this journey with me. May you go by the narrow gate so that God's light continuously shines in you.

Soli Deo Gloria, to God alone be the glory!

What: Lunch and Learn

When: Wednesday, August 22 - 10:30am

Where: FBC Assembly Room - Room 103

Cindy Stafford has invited a co-worker to come share valuable information concerning Care-Giving. The roll of care giver for older adults can take on many forms depending on the situation. Sometimes the decision is made to have home health care, sometimes a nursing care facility and sometimes the responsibility falls to family members to provide care. When that time comes there are many questions and answers don't always come easy.

So, what is the roll of a care giver? What decisions have to be made concerning a loved one's care? Who can help navigate those care choices?

Where are you currently? You may already be there. You may see that care giving for a spouse, parent or family member is approaching. Whatever your situation, the more information you have, the better it will be when the time comes.

Join in the conversation concerning Care-Giving at the August Lunch and Learn.

Please sign up with Mark or call the church office by Monday, August 20. Cost for lunch is $5.00.
