"A Seed, Some Yeast and A Pearl"

Matthew 13:31-33; 45-46

What does a mustard seed, some yeast and a pearl have in common?
Very little.....EXCEPT in the teachings of Jesus.

Parable - "...an earthly story with a heavenly meaning."

Kingdom of Heaven ...the spiritual domain over which God is sovereign.
It has both a broad perspective and a powerful personal application.
Luke 17:20-21

The Kingdom of Heaven is like a Mustard Seed...

Tiny seed; about size of a small freckle.

Mustard seed represents the gospel when sown in the fertile ground of a human life.

Christian discipleship has a never-ending and ever widening effect in a Believer's life.

The Kingdom of Heaven is like some Yeast...

Tiny bit of yeast permeates a batch of dough.

In this parable, the Kingdom has the effect and power of touching every part of a Christians' life.

Fritz Kreisler- world famous violinist

The Kingdom of Heaven is like a Merchant looking for fine Pearls...

Finest pearls, in Jesus' day, found in pearl oysters in Persian Gulf and Red Sea areas.

The Merchant's search leads to greatest joy of his life.

God's Kingdom is priceless. It should be the priority of our lives.

Steve Bustos tells story of visiting Field's Fine Jewelry Store

We are so grateful to God for leading you to this place of worship today.
If you are a guest, be sure to sign our fellowship pads
as they are shared during the worship time or our guest book in the foyer
